

SWE- SD JANUARY EVENT

LEADERSHIP TRAINING FOCUSING ON INFLUENCING SKILLS

By: Jill Huppenbauer & Molly Frisbie

Sponsored by : SDG&E

An engineering expert and an employee development professional share information about one individual's career in engineering and the importance of influencing skills in the workplace. Come learn about:

- Organizing and delivering ideas to get results
- Delivering messages clearly and concisely
- Ensuring that ideas are acted on by developing follow-up plans

Date: Tuesday, January 13th

Time: 5:30 -7:30pm

Location: SDG&E Headquarters, 8306 Century Park, Bldg 6, San Diego, CA
(corner of Kearny Villa and Balboa)

Refreshments will be provided

PLEASE RSVP BY Friday January 9th

Lori Peck (858) 578-4363

lpeck2@san.rr.com

[Please indicate name of your employer]

Presenters:

Jill Huppenbauer is a Sr. Employee Development Advisor with SDG&E. Prior to working at SDG&E, she worked for 5 years at Sempra Energy's Corporate Center with Executive and Organizational Development. Jill has her bachelor's degree in Psychology from Michigan State University and her Master's degree in Organizational Psychology from the California School of Professional Psychology.

Molly Frisbie graduated from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo with a degree in Civil Engineering in 2004. Since graduating she has worked for SDG&E in the Civil/Structural Engineering Section, completing the SDG&E Associate Engineer Rotation Program. Her specialty is Electric Transmission Engineering, and for the past two years she has actively worked on the Sunrise Powerlink Project. Molly obtained her Professional Engineer's license in CE in 2007 and plans on completing her Masters Degree in Civil Engineering with an emphasis in Geotechnical Engineering at SDSU in May 2009.

